NEW BUY and DRY promo!

FREE Kimble Brand Glassware Starter Packs when you purchase a Lab-Aire® II Drying Rack from Fisher Scientific.

Dry Glassware – no matter how much space you have!

Space in laboratories is always in high demand, making the small footprint of the Scienceware® Lab-Aire® II Drying Rack a practical solution for drying and storing labware. With a choice of benchtop, wall-mount and electric models, you're sure to find the rack that meets your specific needs.

All models come with three sizes of rugged V-channel pegs (3", 4" and 5") that can be repositioned to hold a variety of labware. Rugged ABS plastic body and pegs will never corrode and wipe clean easily.
